

Bone health in persons with spinal cord injury

Occurrence, consequences, treatment and prevention of osteoporosis in people with spinal cord injury

Wednesday, November 15, 2017

12:15 to 15:30 in the auditorium Sunnaas Rehabilitation Hospital HF

Organizer: Research group spinal cord injuries, Sunnaas Rehabilitation Hospital HF

Program

12:15 Welcome by Vegard Strøm, head of research group SCI, Sunnaas Rehabilitation Hospital

Definitions, occurrence and consequences of osteoporosis and fractures in people with spinal cord injury (SCI). Postdoctoral fellow Emil Kostovski

12:30 Studies conducted at Sunnaas Rehabilitation Hospital HF related to osteoporosis and fractures in persons with SCI

1) Fall and fall injuries after SCI. Physiotherapist, Ph.D. Vivien Jørgensen

2) D vitamin status in persons with SCI. Clinical dietitian Hanne-Björg Slettahjell

3) Skeletal complications in persons 20 years after traumatic SCI. Postdoctoral fellow Emil Kostovski

13:00 Break

13:15 Prevention and treatment of osteoporosis in able-bodied- and persons with SCI.
Professor Erik Fink Eriksen Endocrinological Outpatient clinic, Aker Hospital, OUS/ University of Oslo

13:50 Osteoporosis in people with SCI at Sunnaas Rehabilitation Hospital HF-Clinical Implications Chief physician-Thomas Glott

14:00 Break

14:15 Prevention and treatment of osteoporosis in people with SCI in Denmark.
Visiting Professor Fin Biering Sørensen, Clinic for Spinal Cord Injuries, Rigshospitalet, University of Copenhagen, Denmark

14:25 Prevention and treatment of osteoporosis in people with SCI in Toronto, Canada
Professor Cathy Craven Physiatrist, Medical Lead, Brain and Spinal Cord Rehabilitation Program, Associate Professor, Dept. of Medicine, Division of PM&R, University of Toronto, Canada (video meeting)

15:00 Plenary discussion Chair: Chief physician Thomas Glott